Course Overview

This mini course teaches fitness professionals an evidence-based way to coach clients that accelerates the natural learning process so that they progress faster and create sustainable changes that last.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, you will:

1. Understand the natural learning process and how it is the most powerful way to create long-term sustainable improvements
2. Recognize how the common “coaching” strategies used by trainers inhibit the natural learning process and often lead to less reliable or consistent changes.
3. Know how to optimize your feedback to enhance your clients’ natural learning process so they progress faster and further.
4. Discover how to teach your clients to become better problem solvers on their own to further accelerate their progress.

Course DevelopersCarolyn Appel, PRONatal Fitness Director of Education

With a background in competitive, collegiate-level tennis, Carolyn Appel has built a career on her passion for fitness, athletics, and skill development. She received her master's degree in Motor Learning and Control from Columbia University and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA. She spent several years on the faculty of the Equinox Fitness Training Institute and is a frequent presenter at the National Strength & Conditioning Association (NSCA) Personal Trainers Conference, the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) NY Chapter meeting, and the annual Fitness Education Institute's Eclipse Summit. Of all her accomplishments, Carolyn is most proud of her role as mom to her son, Julian.

Brittany Citron, PRONatal Fitness Founder

After nearly 12 years in the corporate world, Brittany Citron took her career in an entirely different direction after an eye-opening experience during her first pregnancy alerted her to the critical need for better education and resources to support women during the pregnancy and postpartum period. Brittany launched PRONatal Fitness in 2015 – recruiting a team of experts to bring her vision of offering the Gold Standard in pre and postnatal resources and education to life. Brittany holds a BBA from the University of Michigan, a Personal Training Certification from the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM), a Group Fitness Certification from the American Council on Exercise (ACE), and several pre and postnatal specializations, including Program Design, Corrective Exercise, and Diastasis and Pelvic Floor rehabilitation. In her role in creating PRONatal courses, Brittany brings her years of corporate experience presenting complex information to colleagues and senior management in a simple and systematic way so that the listener truly comprehends the information presented.
